Why can't we see Your face, O Lord, why do we need our faith?
Then why, O Lord, are we on earth, then why aren't we with You?
Then why do hard things hap-pen, Lord, that cause us so much pain?
So what hap - pens, Lord, when life does end, and we have breathed our last?

You DO see Me, My be - lov - ed child, in all I made sin - cere - ly, and — You are here to grow, My child, I'm giv - ing this to you, to
I send you things, My dear - est child, and feel them as you do, so My child, I give you life with Me, and no one takes your place, and grow - ing in My im - age you see me ev - er more clear - ly.

be the "who" you want to be, while work - ing with Me too.
you will grow as you must grow and help your fam - i - ly too.
now of spi - rit you are made, now you see My face.
