

Words by Robert J. Cormier

Honest

Music by Edward P. Smith

Verse 1

It's a - maz - ing what God gives us, a love that we can say, with ev - 'ry - thing we have and are, and mean it; we don't play.

Verse 2

If in - deed it's true I love you, I'll love you all my life, and it means that I have made you my hus - band or my wife.

Refrain

It is - n't ea - sy be - ing hon - est, when you're the on - ly one who cares; but you're not and e - ven if you were; it's right when you are hon - est, and great - er when you're hon - est, if you are the on - ly one who dares.

Verse 3

It takes time when you are hon - est to know your love will last. But oth - er - wise you've risked your life and stol - en some - one's past.

Verse 4

So I prom - ise I'll be hon - est, and al - so I'll be smart;

and when no - one is a - round I'll be care - ful what we start.