

My Spiritual Story

By and Based on the Books of Robert J. Cormier (www.thefaithkit.org)
Courtesy of Crossroad Publishing (www.cpcbooks.com)

Permission to duplicate this material for non-commercial purposes is gladly given

Chapter I

I was born in _____ on _____.

My parents were _____ and _____.

My main memory of my mother is

My main memory of my father is

The other important people in my life were

If I only have a few words to describe my life as a child I would say that

My dream for my life was this:

When I was a child, this is what religion meant to me:

Chapter II

I started to stop being a child when

What kind of a teenager was I? As a teenager I was

For me, as a teenager, the most important thing was

I had friends, and my friends affected my life. This is what happened:

Almost everybody starts to question things. This is my story:

Chapter III

Almost everybody has to learn some things the hard way.
This is my story:

I started to think of myself as an adult when

When I think about my education, I think

When I think about my work, I think

I guess my greatest adventure was

Love came into my life when

My experience with love taught me

I started to move towards an adult sort of faith when

Almost everybody who has mature ideas about life and God has had to let go of ideas that were less mature. This is my story:

Looking back, the main things I have learned from life are

At this point in my life, what makes me happiest is

At this point in my life, what saddens me most is

Probably my biggest strength is

Probably my biggest weakness is

If I have to describe myself as a person, I would say I am

Chapter IV

If I have to answer the question, “what is the place of God in your life,” this is what I would say:

If I have to answer the question, “what were we made for,” this is what I would say

If I have to answer the question, “what are we here for, on earth,” this is what I would say

If I have to answer the question, “why do hard things happen,” this is what I would say

Most people have a question or two about life or God. For me

What I want more of from my spiritual life is

Besides coming to church every week, I have also been urged to do something daily to keep my faith in front of me. This is my response:

Chapter V

If I have to answer the question, “what, really, are you living for,” this is what I would say:

As I look five years into the future, I see

As I look fifty years into the future, I see

If at the end of my life, someone will write a short summary of it, this is what I would like them to say:
