

The Five Questions

1. Is it possible that we are here from nothing?
2. Is it possible that we were made for death?
3. Is anything better than love?
4. What can happen apart from God's will?
5. "All of us are going to be richer for the holiness of each of us." How else do we explain the struggle of human history, and all the inequality that exists under the guidance of God's plan?

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

The Glory Be

A New Hail Mary

Blessed are you Mary, because you accepted what you did not understand solely because the Father sent it. Blessed am I if I can do the same.

The Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses; as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

A Daily Prayer

Dear God,

Help me to remember that I was made for heaven so I can live with what I do not have and dream my dreams in joy.

Help me to remember that the way to heaven is a life of faith and love so I will know what I should do and do it.

Help me to remember that You are guiding me in everything that happens to me so I can love myself as You love me and live my life in peace. Amen.

The Sign of the Cross

"In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen."

We bless ourselves in the name of God reminding ourselves of the two greatest things about God. The words remind us that God is more than a person as we are individual persons, and the gesture reminds us that God gave of Himself that we might live too.
